LET'S FINISH THE JOB

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

The boys have done it, and VICTORY IS OURS! The hardships they have endured, the dangers they have faced, and the sacrifices they have made for the cause of liberty call for everlasting gratitude from us at home and all freedom-loving people throughout the world. They have finished their job, and theirs is the honor and the glory.

At home the workers of the Nation have not only turned out the materials so necessary to the winning of the war, but through the purchase of war bonds they have paid for them as well. But the job is NOT YET FINISHED. Though men no longer face death in battle, the cost of the war in dollars will continue for some time to come. There is still an urgent call for huge expenditures - to bring the men and women in uniform back home - to rehabilitate the wounded - for mustering-out pay - for veterans' benefits - for reconversion - and for lots of other war bills still to be paid.

That's why all of us have a share in the Victory Loan, which opens on October 29 and continues until December 31. So let's continue our purchase of bonds through payroll savings and also buy an extra bond for cash during the drive.

LET'S FINISH THE JOB

LETTERS FROM OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Lt. Paul O. Ritter, U.S.C.G.R., U.S.S., LST 790, Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, California, in a letter to Mr. Anthony says:

Right now we are on the beach at Ie Shima (You may remember it as the place where Ernie Pyle is buried) picking up our second load for Tokyo Bay.

Can't remember now whether you ever mentioned being in Yokohama, but on our last trip we cleared the breakwaters there as a typhoon was approaching (wind and rain gusts up to 60 miles) and then rode it out for about 12 hours in the bay.

Actually, the storm center passed about 110 miles away, which is the closest we've been on this ship. There have been several about 400 to 500 miles away. Over all, the weather has been better than on Greenland Patrol and another month should see the end of the typhoons for this season.

The chief irritation for a CO out this way now is the point system. Under the publicized formula the men are eligible to go back, but you can't return them and keep the ships going. Eventually they will decommission most of them but, until then, the men retained, are not very happy about it and tend to blame the CO.

Sgt. Ernest G. Thomas, #37381066 "A"
Det. 5th R.S.M., A.P.O. 627, c/o P.M.,
New York, N. Y. - I wish you would drop my name from your overseas mailing list
as I am leaving for the States soon.

High point men and over age men are being sent out of this area in large numbers. At present all men are being flown from here to seaports in India.

I want to thank you for sending the Grapevine, the General Files' letters, and the Christmas packages. I have enjoyed them all very much. Hope to be seeing you soon.

In a small town in the South there was a lad who had the reputation of not being very bright. People there had fun with him several times each day by placing a dime and a nickel on the open palm of his hand, and telling him to take his pick of the two. In each case the lad would pick the nickel, and then the crowd would laugh and guffaw.

A kind-hearted old lady asked the unfortunate youth one day: "Don't you know the difference between the dime and a nickel, son? Don't you know the dime, though smaller, is worth more than the nickel?"

"Sure, I know it," he answered, "but they wouldn't try me out on it any more if I took the dime."

The battleship was in port and visitors were being shown around. The guide was exhibiting a bronze tablet set in the deck. Guide: Here is where our gallant captain fell.

Nervous old lady: Well, no wonder, I nearly tripped over it myself.

Wallie: Gee, pop, there's a man at the circus who jumps on a horse's back, slips underneath, catches hold of its tail, and finishes up on the horse's neck!

Dad: That's easy. I did all that the first time I ever rode a horse.

OUR WASHINGTON REPORTER

"Ed" Cade (now a civilian!) dropped in to see his former FCA co-workers the other day. Says he will be seeing us again soon... Joe Linden, also out of the service, has been in to visit us and is planning to accept a position here in the Department... We hear that Charlie Ritter is stationed on Guam and has paid several visits to Japan... Lt. (j.g.) Alex Swantz writes that he was very fortunate in being relieved from sea duty and in being sent to Seattle where he can have his family with him.

Things were "humming" here to such an extent last week with the conferences, etc., that it seemed like FCA was already "together again." Shall we look over the "Spar" barracks and pick out some nice quarters in order to be prepared? Or shall we hold out for dear old 1300 E?

DANCERS ENJOY AD CLUB

Nearly 300 Farm Credit Club members, their friends, and uniformed guests of the club attended the Victory Dance on October 19 held at the Ad Club. They had such a good time that they didn't want to go home at 12 o'clock so the boys played 'til nigh onto 1.

Downstairs in the cozy atmosphere of the La Conga Room members tried their luck at interesting games. Delta Vaughn and her gang hailed the entrance of each FCA'er with "Hi, come over and join our table." On the second floor hostesses greeted each new arrival, and soon the grand march lead by Governor and Mrs. Duggan, with Acting Deputy Governor and Mrs. Esgate second, gave the evening a gala start. The dreamy waltzes and hot tunes of Kenneth White and the boys drew dancers on the floor; and when Paul Joneses were announced every seat was emptied as all joined in the fun of mingling and saying hello to the tune of a few dance steps.

During intermission Louise "Fort Knox" Pressgrove, glamorous in gold and black and more gold, by popular request borrowed the microphone and amused with a number of choice jokes which could be told in public. Following solos by Ralph Foster's daughter, Ann, and by Helen Brecheisen, there was community singing of such favorites as "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and "School Days." The spotlight last fell on Walt Hein who entertained with clever antics in the way of singing and dancing.

"It was one of the best dances the club has ever had," attendants agree, and give praise to the efficient planning of George Hinde and his committee composed of Walt Hein, Milt Hoberecht, Bernice Nilson, Louise Schwendeman, and W. A. Cleveland.

Additional Washington News:

Captains Bill Kane and Harvey Wright are out of the service and have been in to see us. Ralph Drumheller (also out) says he is going to photographic school. Lt. Ed Waterman dropped by for a chat. Stanley O'Donnell bumped into "Baldy" at the separation center and they are now civilians. Giff Hoag (our "wandering reporter") saw John Fox and Ernie Enquist (FCA'ers away back!) a week ago and they both claim to be "junk dealers" - Surplus Property to you.

The girls here bade farewell at a luncheon last week to Margaret Tunstall who is returning to Kansas City, and presented her with a lovely orchid. I & E welcomes Ruth Coulter, and CR&S welcomes Dorothy Cundall and Katherine Palmer.

COMMUNITY AND WAR CHEST

The Community and War Chest drive sponsored by the Farm Credit Club got underway in FCA on October 17. FCA employees as always are responding generously and it is hoped that the quota will be met when all pledges are in. The FCA Farm Credit Club annual chest publication, the KEY, has kept the members of the club informed during the drive.

WAG Meeting

The WAGS began their 1945-46 season with a most successful dinner meeting on Thursday evening, October 18. The Aladdin Hotel was the scene of activities - a delicious turkey dinner being served in the Grill, and the program carried on in the privacy of the 16th floor club-room.

"Music Hath Charms" was the subject chosen by the leader, Waverly Haynes, for an interesting and instructive session. The meeting was opened with group singing and closed with a musical quiz program which was won in a walk by pianist, Elizabeth Fraw. Mrs. George H. Gorton, one of Kansas City's most prominent women, brought a message regarding the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra. Her close association with cultural growth of Kansas City, and her knowledge of Kansas City history as well as present day world affairs made her talk a brilliant one which seemed all too short.

The next WAG meeting is scheduled for 11:00 on Saturday, November 17. An escorted trip through the Nelson Art Gallery is planned, and all who wish to be sent a notice should contact Evelyn Gibson, Room 2330.

ECHOES IN MEXICO

The recent article in the KANSAS CITY STAR, which mentioned El Club Vespertino, was condensed and printed in Spanish in the October 12 issue of TIEMPO, an international news weekly similar to our TIME magazine, which is published in Mexico City.

The Federated Pan American Clubs of Greater Kansas City, of which El Club Vespertino is a member, will present Samuel Martinez, noted Mexican violinist, in an informal concert at Epperson House of the University of Kansas City on November 9. A leading figure in Inter-American affairs, and founder and director of the Yucatan Symphony Orchestra, Sr. Martinez is the head of the only concert circuit in Mexico and Central America, which he founded. Refreshments will be served after the program. Further announcements will be made concerning this presentation.

At its meeting of October 24, Sr. Eduardo L. Sanchez, Cuban Consul, will talk in Spanish to the members and their guests on Cuba. Sr. Ralph Andrade will be the guest speaker at the first meeting in November. Sr. Andrade will select his own subject.

BIG THREE

Dahill	182-3
Frazee	165-4
Hein	164-14

After his mates split the first two with Short-Term, Ludlow came through with a 163 to clinch the third for Accounts and lift his team to a first-place tie. Yorkdale was high with 504-180. Short-Term threw an 804 to take the first easily and then couldn't stand prosperity. Frazee topped the losers with 465-180, with Warburton's 460-187 next first.

Reports dropped two to the split-picking Harvesters when Dahill tossed a neat 547-205, and Armacost rolled a helpful 479-173. Collins led the losers with 494-167, which with Hein's 460-168 was good for one.

Field Accounting couldn't get under way until the third, when Selby tied together a string of strikes for 174 to avoid a shutout. Vince Johnson donated a nice 497-178 in vain. Graphic was torrid in the first two, with Elkins 502-188 leading and Dreschers' 479-196 next best.

Examination, still only luke-warm, took the odd one from Bankers when Howard pitched a snappy 505-177. Bankers, with the help of Sub Bushnell who contributed a 414-157, managed to snare one for the win column.

Aided by Lochbaum's 153 in the first game, Legal took the first and second from Production Credit, retaining their one-game lead for top spot. Despite Holland's 394, Audit was unable to take more than one game from Personnel. Finance and Accounts downed Reports for two and moved into third place in the line-up. Graphic moved out of the cellar position by taking two from Purchase. Palmer's 154-404 was high game and set for the series.

KEEN COMPETITION IN BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

Keen competition is developing in the race for top place in the 1945 Bridge Tournament. With four rounds of play, John Maguire leads with 19,710 points. Dorothy O'Bryan, scoring 18,560, moved into second place, passing Ellis Batten by a nice margin. Kathleen Thomas remains among the top three with 18,440 points. Others in the top half are Ella Wells, with 17,280; Erma Dinger, 16,964; Ellis Batten, 15,800; Lorraine Meuers, 14,940; and Pearl Ferguson, 13,850.

BAR FLY

In the morning I hang on the bar
As I try to remain on my feet.
Though I scan the whole place near and far
There is no such a thing as a seat.

The dank air makes my head seem so light
While humanity surges too near.
If I start with my hat set just right,
It is knocked down around my right ear.

Oh, I beg of the man who is boss.
I implore you, kind sir, from my knees.
Send an empty big bus, broad across,
To convey us down town sans the squeeze!

PICTURES RECORD SUCCESSFUL HIKE

Twelve hardy hikers, despite threatening rain, opened the hiking season on Saturday, October 13, with a visit to the Wyandotte County Park in Kansas. Lead by Hoyt Elkins, the group tramped through the wooded hills enjoying the colorful reds and yellows of the autumn foliage. The lake, which they found to be fast filling a large spot in the 1500-acre tract, now boasts of a motor boat used for part patrol duty.

On reaching the open fireplace, it was discovered that red points had been squandered on large juicy steaks which soon sizzled over the fire. Photographer Mary Freeze set up her camera, draped a black cloth over her head and obtained some interesting and amusing shots of the hikers. Prints of the picture of Dorothy O'Bryan enjoying a "huge" bite of steak are much in demand; while in the album of a number of hikers will be found the twilight campfire scene with the hikers' mouths opened in song, lead, it seemed, by Jean Sutter and Louise Pressgrove who stood prima donna fashion in the foreground.

The hiking dozen included Louise Bowman, Dorothy O'Bryan, Pearl Ferguson, Edith Threlkeld, Irene McCollom and her small son, Phil, Louise Pressgrove, Mary Freeze, Pat Ross, Dorothy Dick, Hoyt Elkins, and Jean Sutter ever faithful to her hiking record.
